

David Gartner is a enforcement analyst in the CDRH Office of Compliance. He has over 30 years of health and scientific information management experience and has expertise in several Center systems and databases, including Registration and Listing. He has been at CDRH since 2002.